

flight. This straight unpowered "Glenn" was designed and built by Henry Glenn, the 14th generation, 14th State's Native Son, in approximately 3 years of work. "Glenn" is constructed of wood and is powered with an engine on top of the tail fin. Thomas says it has a very high range of flight but the team has several ideas about getting it running in Canada.

